

Continued to work on the revive & restore application – drafted the modelling section explaining the steps the team hopes to take towards the project.