

Researched information on kill switch aspects such as antitoxin-toxin modules. Further started modelling using the hill plot function for the kill switch and shnorine components.